WE ARE MELROSE

MHS LOG 2008 Volume 8

MELROSE PUBLIC LIBRARY
MELROSE, MA

As the memories flashed by over the past four years, these photographs captured a glimpse of the stories behind them. Each picture reminds us of who we used to be with the friends who made us who we are. So please, forgive us, the crazy yearbook editors and our infamous pink and blue cameras, as we tried to preserve the memories of high school in print. Class of 2008, thanks for smiling, because a picture isn't worth a thousand words anymore; it's worth 2008.

Don't forget to smile and say cheese! 😊

Editors In Chief

Lauren Hook & Ruby Semock

Dear Mrs. Berman and Ms. Scott,

For the past four years, your confidence and trust have guided and supported us through all our decisions. You have encouraged us to think outside the box and start new traditions and were always patient, even at times when we were scrambling to get ourselves organized. Most of all, you dedicated more than just your time to the Class of 2008. We cannot thank you enough for coming in early every Wednesday morning and giving up many of your Friday and Saturday nights to be at our events.

We would be remiss in not mentioning Ms. Connors, whose optimistic attitude and enthusiasm led us through our freshman and sophomore years. Although she left big shoes to fill, we are grateful Mrs. Berman took on the challenge. Mrs. Berman, for the past two years we have been lucky enough to have you jump into our lives and share in our experiences. Ms. Scott, you have stuck by our sides since freshman year when we thought selling bracelets was a good idea. We will never forget our charades nights; nobody can do the running man quite like you!

We could not have wished for better advisors, and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts; who else would have put up with our rebellious t-shirt designs!

No one can prevent you from choosing to be exceptional.

Life is what you make of it! Take chances and follow your heart. You only live once so remember the good times and learn from the bad. Never forget that your imperfections make you flawless and recognizing your weaknesses makes you stronger. Friendships and loyalty should be cherished above everything else.
